British Society of Audiology

Promoting excellence in hearing and balance

This is to certify that mariem lamti

Successfully completed the BSA Accredited Course on Ear Examination & Microsuction

On

10/09/2024

Signed

Donna Corrigan, BSA Chair

The training course to which this certificate applies does not constitute an audiological qualification or part of one. The procedures taught as part of this course are undertaken at the risk of the certificate holder who is not an autonomous, audiology professional. Neither the trainer/s nor the assessor/s are responsible for the outcome of any practices carried out by the certificate holder using this training. Although care has been taken by the BSA in the accreditation of the programme for this training course, the BSA does not and cannot guarantee the interpretation and application of it by any third party. The BSA cannot be held responsible for any errors or omissions, and the BSA accepts no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage howsoever arising.